HITLER DEAD

Fuehrer Fell at CP, German Radio Says; Doenitz at Helm, Vows War Will Continue

German radio announced last night that Adolf Hitler had died. After Karl Doenitz, former commander-in-chief of the German Navy, has succeeded him as ruler of the Reich, the radio announcement said.

Doenitz made a radio speech immediately after the announcement, Doenitz said, and declared that Germany would continue to wage war. The statement upped peace chances which had been prevalent for more than a week in all world capitals.

The announcement did not give any details of how the Reich leader died. The news was broadcast after solemn Wagnerian music, including "Twilight of the Gods," was played.

"Ich bin, ich bin," a voice said. "In a few minutes you will hear a serious and important message to the German people. We are not going to surrender."

The announcement was followed by a broadcast of a speech by Doenitz, who said he was taking over the leadership of the German people. He said he was taking over the leadership of the German people. He said he was taking over the leadership of the German people.

Churchill Hints Peace Is at Hand

Churchill, British prime minister, said last night that the war was now in its final stages. He said that the German people were now in a position to make a decision. He said that the German people were now in a position to make a decision.

Hitler's death came three days after his last radio broadcast, Berlin broadcast of Italy, was killed by Italian planes near the village of Dogo on Lake Garda.

Doenitz, in his speech, said that Hitler "had fallen at his command post," while standing order that he died in the Reich Chancellery in Berlin yesterday afternoon. Red Army troops fighting in Berlin.

“Most of the big points are settled. He'll [Stalin] be in the Jap War on August 15th. Fini Japs when that comes about. We [he and Stalin] had lunch, talked socially, put on a real show drinking toasts to everyone then had pictures made in the back yard. I can deal with Stalin. He is honest -- but smart as hell.”

The next day, the Manhattan Project succeeds in exploding an atomic bomb at the test site in New Mexico.

“Operated on this morning. Diagnosis not yet complete but results seem satisfactory and already exceed expectations. Local press release necessary as interest extends great distance. Dr. Groves pleased.”

“Atomic Diplomacy” – Gar Alperowitz

Why did US drop the atomic bombs?

- Note the following dates (all in 1945)
 - Aug. 6: Hiroshima
 - Aug. 8: USSR entry v. Japan
 - Aug. 9: Nagasaki
 - Aug. 14/15: Japanese surrender
- Why did US drop two bombs when it did?
 - Remember: Japan was almost defeated by late July
 - and HST wrote: “He'll [Stalin] be in the Jap War on August 15th. Fini Japs when that comes about.”
- Was it military necessity – to defeat Japan...

Or was it the first salvo
of the Cold War?
