

CHE 330/331 Poster Presentation Grading Rubric

Criterion	Score (1-10)	Well-done (10)	Comments and/or suggestions	Poor (1)
Introduction		Issue presented clearly & succinctly; no doubt as to why it is important. Big-picture context clear.		Explanation of importance of experiment is very unclear. Big-picture context not apparent.
Objective		Succinct description of research objective and how it relates to big picture context.		Objective(s) and purpose of experiment not defined clearly.
Methods		Described clearly, but succinct – does not dominate presentation.		Methods dominate presentation. Description of methods not clear.
Results		Clear, concise, and relevant. Appropriate number of clearly presented graphs and tables. Just the facts;” on-target.		Results presented are overly detailed or not detailed enough. Graphs and tables poorly formatted or described.
Conclusions		Conclusions are clear, quantitative, relate back to big-picture context, and are supported by the results.		Conclusions do not follow from results or are presented in confusing manner. No quantitative values presented.
Flow and Balance (Visual Grammar A)		Logical, intuitive progression of ideas with clear and direct reference to information on slides or poster.		Poorly organized. Difficult to identify how to navigate poster.
Appearance (Visual Grammar B)		Tasteful layout and use of color. Good balance of figures, text, white space; uncluttered background. Figures dominate. Blocks of text relatively small (e.g., <100 words per block on poster). Fonts readable from 5-6 feet away. Headings obvious, appropriate.		Slides or poster cluttered or unreadable from audience. Irrelevant figures. Insufficient text supporting images. Distracting background. Blocks of text too lengthy.

Oral Presentation		Guides audience / viewer through data and results. Enthusiastic, animated. Eye contact with audience. Spoke loudly and at a reasonable pace. Appropriate attire (e.g., business casual). Did not read from script.		Dull delivery. Spoke too softly or too quickly and without clear enunciation. Little eye contact with audience; faced poster board continuously. Read from slides, poster, or paper. Over-rehearsed. Confusing visual transitions (e.g., animations for slides).
Responses to Audience Questions		Answers were direct, clear, on-target, no-nonsense.		Answers incorrect, evasive, defensive, incoherent.
